

Mat Man™ Back-to-School Note Cards

These Back-to-School notes are great tools to help you introduce the handwriting curriculum to parents.

1. Print out one set of cards. Choose from wide, regular, or narrow double line note cards based on grade level.
2. Use your best HWT handwriting to write a note to the parents introducing them to Handwriting Without Tears.
3. Make enough double-sided copies for all of the children in your class.
4. Have the children sign their names or write their names for them.

—Or—

1. Print enough double-sided note cards for each child.
2. Choose from wide, regular, or narrow double line note cards based on grade level.
3. Have the children write a note introducing their parents to Handwriting Without Tears.
