Crossword Puzzles

Objective: To learn about James Madison while practicing writing skills; to learn about the three branches of the government by using a crossword puzzle.

Materials
- Pencil
- James Madison illustration with Narrow Double Lines
- Crossword puzzle

Activity
1. Discuss the image.

   !Image

   What do you see in this illustration? Discuss the image and do some research on the fourth president as a class. Next, suggest some independent writing prompts for children to write on the double lines at the bottom of the page. Here are some ideas for independent writing prompts:
   - James Madison was called the Father of the Constitution. What does that mean?
   - Write something interesting we found out today about President James Madison.
   - Write the three branches of government that the Constitution formed.

2. Explain the crossword puzzles.

   Crossword puzzles use capitals. Look at the sentences underneath each puzzle. We are going to use these sentences to solve the puzzles. You will notice some of the letters are bold. Find those letters in the crossword. Look, the words legislative, executive, and judicial are already written for you to help you find the other words.

3. Help children complete the crossword puzzles.

   Observe and help as needed.
James Madison—U.S. Constitution

James
The POW to make LAWS belongs to the LEGISLATIVE BRANCH, the CONGRESS. Its members are ELECTED from their states to the SENATE or the HOUSE of REPRESENTATIVES.

Crossword Puzzle

Directions: Write the underlined words in the correct boxes.
The EXECUTIVE BRANCH includes the PRESIDENT and VICE PRESIDENT who are ELECTED for a FOUR-YEAR TERM. The president appoints CABINET members to head the executive departments.
The Supreme Court is the highest court of the judicial branch. There are nine justices. Including one chief justice, they are appointed for life by the president. They are appointed for life by the president.